

Contact:
Sakshi Mahajan
Director of Research and Communication, HHQ Ventures
913-544-6734
smahajan@hhqventures.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
MARCH 30, 2021

Senate Appropriations Committee Clerk Hamilton Bloom joins HHQ Ventures

Washington, D.C. – HHQ Ventures is excited to welcome Hamilton Bloom, a longtime Shelby staffer and Clerk of the United States Senate Appropriations Subcommittee on Commerce, Justice, Science, and Related Agencies. Mr. Bloom joins the firm as Vice-President.

“Hamilton is a tremendous addition to our firm. Hamilton’s knowledge and expertise in the appropriations process in particular will greatly enhance our abilities to provide our clients with guidance in their dealings with the federal government,” said former Congressman Ben Quayle (R-AZ), partner HHQ Ventures.

“The addition of Hamilton to the HHQ team is a huge win for our clients as his experience and connections on Capitol Hill will help us greatly expand our reach and expertise. As HHQ continues its rapid growth and expansion, Hamilton will be instrumental in our firm’s future,” added former Congressman Kevin Yoder (R-KS), partner HHQ Ventures.

“It was the honor of a lifetime to work for such giants of public service to solve problems facing constituents across the nation. At HHQ, I look forward to leveraging what I learned during my tenure both in Senator Shelby’s office and while serving the members of the Appropriations Committee to help stakeholders navigate the difficult landscape of the federal government. I believe the experienced and dynamic staff at HHQ is uniquely positioned to help solve issues impacting our nation, and I look forward to joining the team,” commented Bloom.

About Hamilton Bloom

Mr. Bloom has a robust background on Capitol Hill, rising through the ranks in the United States Senate and serving in a variety of capacities during his career. From 2019 to 2021, Mr. Bloom served as the Republican Subcommittee Staff Director and Clerk for the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee on Commerce, Justice, Science, and Related Agencies. During his time as the lead Republican Staffer on the subcommittee, he oversaw the passage of three funding bills and several supplemental appropriations bills, including the generational CARES Act at the onset of the COVID-19 Pandemic. As Staff Director, Mr. Bloom led his team in the negotiations, writing, and passage of funding bills for the Department of Justice, Department of Commerce, NASA, and the Office of the United States Trade Representative, among others.

Mr. Bloom started his legislative career with the Chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee Senator Richard Shelby after graduating from the University of Alabama, where he served as President of the Student Government Association. After later working as Deputy Political Director on Senator Shelby's successful Senate campaign in 2016 in Alabama, Mr. Bloom served as Senator Shelby's Legislative Assistant and lead staffer for the Senate Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs Committee. In addition, he handled issues related to workforce development, education, and taxes for the Senator.

About HHQ Ventures

HHQ Ventures is a boutique advocacy and business advisory service firm whose partners bring nearly six decades of bipartisan, bicameral public policy and business experience. The firm provides federal advocacy services for business sectors including industrial chemical, cybersecurity, defense, energy, financial services, transportation and technology. In addition, HHQ supports clients in the development of state political and policy strategies.

The firm's partners also provide business advisory services, working with venture capital, private equity and major financial institutions, and assisting early and growth stage businesses with accessing government markets, and they advise and evaluate funding and procurement opportunities. Additional client service offerings include policy, regulatory and market risk analysis in support of domestic and international business development.

For more information, visit www.hhqventures.com.