Congressman Kevin Yoder joins HHQ Ventures

Washington, D.C. – HHQ Ventures is pleased to welcome former Rep. Kevin Yoder (R-KS) as a partner in the advocacy and business advisory firm.

“Kevin is an outstanding addition to our team,” said HHQ Ventures partner and former Congressman Ben Quayle. “He established himself as a smart, effective legislator whose innovative solutions received unmatched levels of bipartisan support. Kevin’s desire to work hard and deliver results makes him a perfect fit for our firm. And Kevin’s deep knowledge of policy expands the capabilities of the HHQ Ventures team in support of our constituency of clients.”

“It’s my honor to be joining HHQ Ventures and to be part of the leadership team with Rob, Rashid and Ben,” said Rep. Yoder. “I looked at a lot of options and the opportunity to pour my heart and soul into helping this business grow was very attractive. We are a nimble, energetic, highly-experienced group. No other firm is better positioned to offer expert counsel on critical issues affecting public policy, markets, and business growth.”

About Kevin Yoder

Rep. Yoder served in Congress from 2011 to 2019. During his time in office, he served on the House Appropriations Committee, with responsibility for authoring legislation to establish and fund priorities of the federal government. In this capacity, Rep. Yoder served as Chairman of both the Homeland Security Subcommittee and the Legislative Branch Subcommittee, while also serving on both the Agriculture and Financial Services subcommittees.

Rep. Yoder was a leading voice on important policy priorities. On biomedical research, he secured and sustained funding of the National Institutes of Health (NIH) to drive continuous innovation in health research. During a time of rapid technology evolution in the marketplace, he authored the most widely-supported bipartisan bill in the U.S. Congress to protect digital communications from search and seizure.

Rep. Yoder also served on the House Steering Committee, as deputy Whip in the House GOP and Vice Chairman at the National Republican Congressional Committee.
